The S- Squad

Sarah, Samantha and Stephen were best friends. They were in the same class and played in the same volleyball team. They created a friendship squad called S-Squad. They wore special wristbands also and decorated Samantha's tree house with "s-squad only" signs.

When the three friends moved into third grade, Samantha and Sarah were placed in Ms Geeta's class, but Stephen was in Ms Sunita's class! At recess, Stephen had no one to play with. Later, a girl named Uma asked if he wanted to play with her. Stephen and Uma had a lot of fun playing together.

Stephen was happy to tell Sarah and Samantha about his new friend, Uma. Samantha and Sarah were surprised. They argued that the s-squad was only for them.

Stephen was so confused. He didn't want to lose his old friends but he didn't want to hurt Uma's feelings as well. When Stephen got home, he asked his brother for some advice. His brother thought Uma would be a great new friend and that he shouldn't leave Uma out.

On Thursday, Uma came to Volleyball practice. Uma played well with Sarah and Samantha. They all laughed and had a great time.

After practice, Samantha, Sarah and Stephen asked Uma to come to the tree house. They made new wristbands and new signs with the title "US-Squad." They said IT was more fun if every one could be friends with THE US-Squad.
