

PUBLIC SCHOOL DARBHANGA

Class – VII

2020-21

G K Worksheet 4, PT-1 (Chapter 5)

Reptiles are cold blooded animals that have scales on their skin. Read the clues and complete the word puzzle on reptiles.

1. The longest venomous snake in the world, it flattens its neck ribs to form a hood when threatened or attacked.

Ans-.....

2. This lizard is known for its ability to change colour in response to light and temperature, and also when it is angry or scared.

Ans-.....

3. It is found in tropical South America, this aquatic constrictor snake's green variety is the largest in the world.

Ans - .....

4. This snake of the viper family is found in Europe, Australia, Asia and Africa and is among the most venomous to inhabit the Earth.

Ans- .....

5. The largest species of tortoise it weighs over 200kg and is native to an archipelago near Ecuador in South America.

Ans- .....

6. Native to the Americas this snake gets its name from the unique rings on the top of its tail.

Ans -.....

7. The biggest and heaviest lizard in the world, this giant predator inhabits the rain forests of the Indonesian archipelago.

Ans - .....

8. A cousin of the tortoise, this aquatic animal has a black, grey or brown shell and two yellow stripes on its head; it emits a strong musky odour when disturbed.

Ans -.....

Answer Keys :- 1) King Cobra 2) Chameleon 3) Anaconda 4) Adder 5) Galapagos Tortoise 6) Bottle snake 7) Komado dragon 8) Musk turtle

*****